YOUR GENERAL PROFESSIONAL TYPE

You like to get things going, here and now. Your work and workplace should offer options to leave your personal mark. You have a cooperative nature. You take care of people and things. You are a traditionalist and good at conservating. You should keep your sensitivity in check and should learn to let go. You may need other, practical and down-to-earth people to make sure that your talents and efforts actually bear fruit. You are involved in non-subjective, important matters of a timeless, principled nature. Your ego is subservient to that. You have a balanced set of purposes. Work is a means to reach personal fulfilment for its own sake, but you also aim to create personal wealth and to contribute something meaningful to society.

You are a Community person. You are emotionally sensible and strongly attached to what you feel to be your home base, yet you are very precise in your thinking. You can be a housekeeping or care professional, or an historian. You tend to work in privately held rather than listed companies. You may work in family business, in small- to mid size enterprises or in any other community where everybody knows each other by name.

YOUR CORE SELF / PRIMARY ASPECTS

You are an Investigator, good at deep drilling (material or immaterial). You can be a trouble-shooter or crisis-manager. You may work for bigger organizations or important matters, but tend to solitary work.

SOME STRENGTHS...AND CHALLENGES

You are strong in critical reasoning and planning rather than executing and operating. Precision is your middle name. You have a knack for aesthetics and fine arts.

Too conformist an environment may limit you more than you may realize. You tend to hold on, even when letting go would be much better.

YOUR WAY OF ASSET BUILDING

Your income may vary and / or may come from various sources.

You have a certain impulsiveness in money matters.

You have a broad view, great expectations and some naivety as to making money and how society could be ordered. You may speculate.

YOUR RESULTS

You are goal-oriented and operationally strong. You go with the flow when setting and fluidly adjusting your goals in life. You rely heavily on your intuition. Your destination is in understanding others and in developing your creativity. Your ultimate destination is determined by your fundamental personal self-sufficiency and autonomy, independent from the world outside. You are an intellectual, legislator or communicator.
