YOUR GENERAL PROFESSIONAL TYPE

You like to get things going, here and now. Your work and workplace should offer options to leave your personal mark. You have a learning and observing nature. Don't forget to walk the talk and to keep a minimum of practicality. You show who you are by what you create. You are involved in non-subjective, important matters of a timeless, principled nature.

To you, work has a meaning in itself. It is also a way for you to contribute something meaningful to society, rather than pursuing personal interests. Money or status are of little or no importance to you.

You are a Humanist. You have a broad, universalist view. You have a creative and original mind. You need to work without pre-set limitations. You crave personal freedom for yourself and others.

YOUR CORE SELF / PRIMARY ASPECTS

You are good at representational and social support work. You are a gatekeeper of value. You should avoid being subjected to excessive social or peer pressure.

You are very earnest and diligent. Understand that these traits are not an end in itself.

Your success at work depends on your courage to use physical force when needed, to tell the (possibly harsh) truth or bring to light how people or things really are without fear of becoming unpopular. Beware of being driven by ideologies and dogmas which others impose on you - or imposing them yourself.

You need to work at synthesizing your own visions with the ones held by the outside world. New ideas may emerge as a result. You work subjected to clear regulations that you may want to loosen at some point. You are a good planner. You should develop the courage to expose yourself to others and to avoid staying in an ivory tower.
